

Carlos Rafael Román, CPA, of Sebring, was born in Bayamón, Puerto Rico, in 1957. He has been a resident of Highlands County since 1996, moving here from Marietta, GA, after retiring from military service. He is the owner of Carlos R. Román, CPA, PA, in downtown Sebring. Carlos Román, CPA, specializes in helping owners develop their businesses with sound planning, complete tax strategies, practical accounting systems, and proven internal controls setup. In addition, Carlos Román, CPA, helps individuals and families plan for college, retirement, and the passing of their good fortunes to their heirs. Before opening his own practice in 2000, Carlos Román, CPA, was with Hackney Manley & Company, CPAs, LLP, from 1996 to 2000. He has also served as an adjunct accounting teacher with the South Florida Community College for a few years. He served our country honorably as a military comptroller with the US Army from where he retired with the rank of Major in 1996. Carlos Román, CPA, received his Bachelor in Business Administration in accounting from the small but prestigious Bayamón Central University, in Puerto Rico. He obtained his Masters in Science, Systems Management, from the University of Southern California. His voluntary and civic activities include: The Rotary Club of Sebring (2000 to present); the First United Methodist Church of Sebring (1996 to present); and the Hispanic Mission of Saint John United Methodist Church (2007 to present). The US Army has honored Carlos Román, CPA, with numerous awards for service and acts of service. He was married to the former Sue Nunnallee from Avon Park, and has two children, Rachel Vanessa Román Nunnallee and Carlos Rafael (Rafi) Román Nunnallee, II. Rachel graduated in April 2010 from the school of nursing at Florida State University as is working in Chattanooga, TN. Rafi is currently enrolled at the Chattanooga State Community College in Tennessee.